A bit about the Concert Performers.....

Duplicity Plus: Sue Kidd vocals, ukulele and percussion and Brendan Canty on uke, bass, guitar and vocals, covering a range of musical genres from Jazz and Blues, to Rock, Pop and Folk. They will be joined tonight by a collective of fun loving musicians.....big stage = big sound.

Not Quite Right: A Dixie band but not too serious- lots of old gems and quite a bit of variety. Allan Auman -trumpet and vocals, Richard Desmond – trombone and vocal, Barry Law – keyboard, David O’Sullivan on drums, Hilton Vermaas -bass and our own David Auman on guitar and vocals.

Eurovibes: A newly formed group of Melbournites. You can expect a foot tapping, lively stage presence, with a taste of European musical tradition, exploring folklore and anthemic explorations of the Middle East. The ensemble is made up of Sue Ferguson, Jonathan Hicks, Kieran and Michelle Butler.

James Gang: John on guitar, lead vocals, Rod, lead mandolin, vocals, Pete Accordion, Pam mandolin vocals will play a mix of country ballads and Bluegrass.

The Hollowbodies: The result of a band formed at the Sandringham Street Festival- still together after 4 years . Mark Eaves on Drums, Julia Eppingstall Vocals, Dave Connaughton – Vocals and Harp, Anton Robins- bass and vocals, Lee Harskamp – guitars and vocals and our renowned and much-loved Instrument repairer Chris Voce on guitar and mandolin. A combination of older blues/rock boys and a younger group of harmonious singer/musicians. Can't wait to rock the late hours away with you.
